Ideas for practising spelling at home

racas for practising spenning at nome
Locate your spellings in as many different places as you can. Copy or cut them out! You could cut out individual letters to make your word.	How many different places can you write your spelling words (with permission)? Try bath letters, chalk, on the window	Make a poster explaining your phonic/spelling rule for a younger child.	Spelling exercise whilst skipping/bouncing a ball/jumping etc. say the letters of your spelling out loud.
Find a dark area, get a torch and practise writing your word with at torch.	Make your word out of sticks or twigs.	Dice roll: 1: Write the word backwards. 2: In a minute, how many times can you write the word. 3: Write the word with the hand you don't usually write with. 4: Write the word with your eyes closed. 5: Change hands after writing each letter. 6: Write it while standing on one leg.	Get some chalk and practise writing your word outside or on a chalkboard.
Get another person to muddle the letters in your words up. Can you the letters in the right order to make your spellings? itanerten entertain letdapn planted xeti exit	Write your words using a different colour for each letter or write your words in bubble letters.	Write a song lyric using your word.	Pyramid words L Lo Lov Love Lovel Lovely
Write your word and make a symbol or picture to represent it.	Write your word on a computer using as many different fonts as possible. CHAIR Chair Chair	Use pasta or other edible food to make your words.	Write sentences: - silly sentences - questions - commands - linked to your topic - about a footballer/friend/tv presenter/singer etc.
Useful Apps: Spelling Shed Spelling Hangman Word Wizard	Spelling Monster Magic Spell Sir Linkalot		