| Event:                    | Your child will be attending a trip to the local library. We will be walking into town and children will be able to experience a library visit as well as browse and choose a selection of books to borrow. As we recognise how important reading is, we want to ensure that we continue to instil a passion for reading in our pupils. |

Please see below a quote highlighting the importance of reading and how much of an impact reading a wide range of books can have on children.

Here's how many words kids would have heard by the time they were 5 years old:
Never read to, 4,662 words; 1–2 times per week, 63,570 words; 3–5 times per week, 169,520 words; daily, 296,660 words; and five books a day, 1,483,300 words.<sup>17</sup>
