

DEBORAH JONES

All about her:

Deborah Jones was a British artist born in 1921 in South Wales.

She painted pictures of teddy bears, dolls to still life (A painting/drawing that focuses on still objects) and industrial landscapes (A painting/drawing of natural scenery).

As well as painting pictures Deborah also painted backgrounds for films and plays.

Deborah travelled all over the world, but never married.

She died on Christmas Eve 2012.

Significant Work:

Street Scenes

Deborah would often paint images of victorian street scenes including different shops such as antique, clothes and toys using oil paints.

Teddy Bears

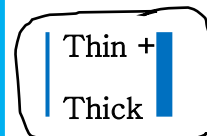

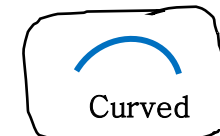

Deborah would often paint images of different teddy bears on shelves, this would include teddy bears wearing different outfits and surrounded by other toys.

Different Media:

Pencil 		Oil
Chalk 		Felt tip pens
Watercolours 		Charcoal

LINE TYPES

Evaluation and Reflection:

What has been done well?

Which is your favourite part? Why?

Can you think of one thing that could be improved?

Key Vocabulary:

Deborah Jones

British

Artist

Teddy Bears

Landscapes

Lines

Straight

Zig-zag

Curved

Thick

Thin

Dotted

Spiral

Shades

Light

Dark

Media