

GUNTA STOLZI

Gunta Stolzi was born in 1897 in Germany.

She volunteered as a nurse in the First World War.

Attended Bauhaus school and became interested in weaving.

She began teaching others about weaving.

Died in 1983 in Switzerland.

This term the children will be learning about different textiles and how textiles can be used to weave.

Significant Work:

Key Vocabulary:

Loom

Weave

Textiles

Weft

Warp

Pattern

Paper

Fabric

Key Questions:

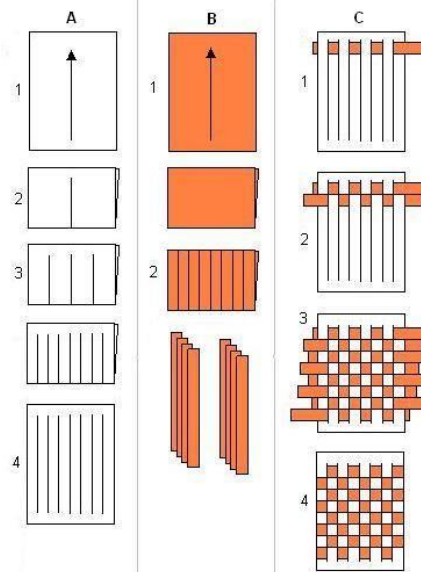

How could you use different textiles to create different textures?

What would you do differently next time?

How does Gunta's work change in different pieces of work?

What do you like about your weave and why?

What is your favorite paper or textiles and why?

Simple steps to the basics of weaving