

Written statement of behaviour principles at Queensway School

- Every pupil understands they have the right to feel safe, valued and respected, and learn free from the disruption of others
- All members of the community should be free from discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any conduct that is prohibited by or under the Equality Act 2010.
- It is expected that all adults – staff, volunteers and Governors, will set excellent examples of behaviour to everyone at all times.
- We seek to give every pupil a sense of personal responsibility for his/her own actions.
- Rewards and sanctions are used consistently by staff, in line with the behaviour policy
- The behaviour policy is understood by pupils and staff
- The exclusions policy explains that exclusions will only be used as a last resort, and outlines the processes involved in permanent and fixed-term exclusions
- Families are involved in behaviour incidents to foster good relationships between the school and pupils' home life
- The school will seek advice and support from appropriate outside agencies where concerns arise over a child's behaviour.
- We will fulfil our legal duties under the Equality Act 2010 in respect of safeguarding including potential radicalisation and extremism concerns, pupils with special educational needs and all vulnerable pupils.
- We will keep abreast of current issues and initiatives with regard to Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and related regulations.

The governing board also emphasises that violence or threatening behaviour will not be tolerated in any circumstances.

This written statement of behaviour principles is reviewed and approved by the Full Governing Body annually.
